

Welcome to our first 3-5 distance learning music class!

I hope you are all doing well and taking care of yourselves by eating well, exercising, practicing reading, math, writing and science, doing some Coaches workout Wednesday exercises, expressing yourself with art and music, and doing some of the calming warm-ups we do in class.

So let's start with some warm-ups.

1. Rolling shoulders, slowly turning your heads up, down, side to side, tipping it to the right and left
2. Breathing in and out, think of the large expanding ball.
3. Listening: being still, listen for sounds of nature outside
4. Moving: One of your favorites: Hair Up

Intermedio from La Boda de Luis Alonzo

Geronimo Gimenez: 1854-1923 Spanish Composer

I have located Mr. Gimenez composition “Intermedo from La Boda de Luis Alonzo” being played by 4 different performance groups, think of the pictures on the wall with different colors. Orange is the orchestra, Yellow is a small performance group, a classical guitar quartet and a percussion ensemble, and Purple is a soloist, possibly accompanied by an orchestra. This is a castanet soloist accompanied by orchestra.

For this lesson I’m going to have you listen to the 4 selections. You can make your own decision as how to sort them based on 1,2,3,or 4. So number 1 would be the one you like best, 2 the next best, 3 the next, and 4, the one you least liked. Write them down on a piece of paper with why you picked number 1 and number 4 to show me next week when we meet on Seesaw.

Have fun doing this and take care. I am doing quite well and staying busy but miss seeing you each day.

Don’t worry as we’ll all be back together. This is something we must do to protect each of us.
